A Proclamation

Recognizing the 125th Anniversary of the Florida Department of Health in Martin County, Florida

Whereas, the yellow fever epidemic that occurred in Florida during 1887-88 brought to light the need for control of this and other diseases in Florida to prevent future epidemics; and

Whereas, in response to this need, the Florida Legislature created the State Board of Health on February 20, 1889; and

Whereas, the now named the Florida Department of Health, has a presence in all 67 counties to protect, promote, and improve the health of all people; and

Whereas, the efforts of the Florida Department of Health have helped create healthier living environments and a better quality of life for our residents; and

Whereas, the dedicated public health professionals who work for the Florida Department of Health in Martin County continue to serve the needs of our community by providing health services, monitoring and responding to emerging health threats such as Dengue Fever, and promoting healthy choices for all who live, work, and play in Martin County.

Now, therefore, be it proclaimed by the Martin County Board of County Commissioners that the 125th Anniversary of Florida Public Health is hereby recognized, and ask that all join in extending our sincere gratitude to the staff of the Florida Department of Health in Martin County for their commitment to the people of our community.

Presented this Twenty-fifth Day February 2014
